

An ornate, gold-colored picture frame with intricate scrollwork and floral patterns. The frame is rectangular and has a wide, decorative border. In the center of the frame, there is a smaller, gold-colored label with a slightly irregular, rounded shape. The label contains the text "Micro Gallery" in a bold, black, serif font. The background of the frame is a plain, light color, possibly white or a very light gold, which makes the dark text on the label stand out.
